THE SECT-BABEL.

The great Babel of sectarianism that has been built up in our land has caused a fearful confounding of the Christian tongue. The language and terms of the Bible have been changed and subverted .-Strange words have been devised by which to express opinions and proctices peculiar to this tall Tower and this new way by which to as-cend to heaven. You can scarcely attend an experience meeting or listen to a sermon without being painfully impressed with this confusion of tongues. The plain, simple story of the cross, the pure language of Canaan, has been changed into the terms of sect and creed and contending faction. For the church of Christ you hear Methodist, or Presbyterian, or Disciple church. At the camp-meeting or in the class-room you hear men glory in being "born a Methodist," "living a Methodist," "dying a Methodist," "hoping to go to heaven a Methodist." Other denominations talk in the same way, and some of our own church are not a whit less sectarian in all their notions and sympathies. What a sad confounding and confusion of the Christian tongue, of the simple story of the cross! When will men be content to glory simply in being called of Christ to be his humble followers, and in being simply brethren and companions with other souls washed at the same crimson fount and saved by the same crucified Jesus? Surely after a lapse of eighteen hundred years we ought no longer defy the teaching of Christ by our divisions, and persist in our carnality by being of Paul, Apollos, and Cephas. Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you?" Did Wesley die for men, and was redemption unfinished till Luther had expired? It seems to us that if Wesley and Luther and Judson and others could look down from heaven and see the sectarian boasting of their names and their teachings, they would feel like reminding men once more that Christ is the Founder, the Head, the Leader of the church, and that names, titles, and honors belong to him, and not to erring, sinful men. Why factions and sects should wish to found systems and write creeds, after having this perfect code and canon of Scripture, we cannot imagine. Why they should confound the simplicity of faith with "the words which man's wisdom teacheth," while there lies before them a Bible written in the "words which the Holy Ghost teacheth," is not easily explained, especially with these words before us: "If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ,

. he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words," etc., and, "Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but the subverting of the hearers."

Alas, how this tall Babel of sectism has destroyed the simple language of Scripture teaching and Scripture confessions! This simple avowal, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God," is changed, is enlarged into a system of divinity and drawn out into complex and inexplicible "articles of faith." The simple truth upon which the penitent soul could at once take easy and firm hold has been dogmatized and mystified till doctors of divinity themselves dispute its meaning, and wrangle over the definitions of their own indefinable tenets. But, thanks be to God, the builders of this sect-Babel can no longer understand each other's words. Work upon the great Tower is therefore ceasing, and the people are returning to the one Book, the one Master-builder, the one language, the one brotherhood, and the one way into the sheepfold.

FARMING IN ARIZONA.

A New York Tribune correspondent thus reports what "the Judge" told about farming in Arizona: "Do you know how they carry on agriculture down there?" asked the Judge.-"There was a fellow who hired himself out as a farm hand in Arizona, and the first day his master told him to cut some wood. So he asked for an axe, but the farmer said, 'No, we don't cut wood with an axe here,' and he gave him a sledge hammer to knock and break off the mesquit which they burn down there. The next day John was ordered to cut some hay, and was looking about for the scythe, when his master said, 'We don't cut hay with a scythe down here,' and he gave him a hoe to cut down the woody stalks with which they swindle the horses there for hay. The third morning the farmer called his man to eme out and plant corn. John looked for the hoe, but his master said, 'We don't plant corn with a hoe out here, and gave him a crow-bar with which to punch holes in the ground wherein to drop corn, and John left the country in disgust at that kind of farm work."

These elegant Chromos, copied from most beautiful pictures painted from nature by one of the dissipartize in America, give the most popular views of those interesting and sublime objects, and are faithful reproductions of the originals. The Grand Old Niagara, with its immense body of water falling one hundred and sixty feet, sending up dense clouds of spray to reflect in brilliancy and beauty the vivid colors of the rainbow, its so clearly depicted that, in Imagination, you hear its mighty roar. The Yosemile, with its lofty mountains towering to the silvery clouds, and its stupendous falls of sixteen hundred feet, impressing with its awful grandeur, and filling the nind with delight and wonder.

These two Chromos are the best pictures ever published for Ten Dollars and will be sent, mounted and varnished, by mail, as a premium to each yearly Three Dollars and worthy of heing cashrined in an honored place in our homes. They will be presented to yearly subscribers on receipt of Time Dollars, and Eight rents for postage, with your full name and address.

Every home in America should posses these invaluable illustrations of art and beauty, and no person of taste and enterprise can afford to be without the Model Magazine, which has been greatly enlarged and now contains the essentials of all others, including the useful, the Entertaining and the Reautiful, with Original Stories, Poems and Popular Music Original Stories, Poe

DONT Be deceived, but for coughs, colds, sore throa hoarseness and bronchial difficulties, use only WELLS' CARBOLIC TABLETS

Worthless imitations are on the market, but the only scientific preparation of Carbolic Acid for Lung diseases is when chemically combined with other well known remedies, as in these Tablets, and all parties are cautioned against using any other.

In all cases of irritation of the mucous membrane these Tablets should be freely used, their cleansing and healing properties are associations.

Be warned, never neglect a cold, it is easily cured in its incipient state, when it becomes chronic the cure is exceedingly difficult, use Wells' Carbolic Tablets as a specific.
